

LUCIA PIROVANO

PRAGUE

Five chapters with five proposals each, and a palatable appendix with five recipes to know discover the Czech capital through the eyes of an Italian living in Prague.

THE AUTHOR

Lucia Pirovano

Born in Milan in 1982, she has been living in Prague since 2011 with her husband William and their one year old daughter, Marta.

She has a degree in construction engineering - architecture, and whilst at first she was active in business consulting, she then began opening and operating a residence for tourists in Prague.

Today, instead, she goes around the Czech capital looking for secret places and new stories about the city.

The author's revenue will be donated to the NGO "Friends of Babusongo" to support an orphanage in Machakos, Kenya.

www.amicidibabusongo.it

